Q#	Question	Notes / Key Quotes
Info	Participant #: 13 Date: 04/06/26 Duration: 1:48 Interviewer: Layla
Q1	What are some issues, if any, with calculating your GPA, weighted and unweighted?	Confusion between weighted and unweighted GPA, unsure how classes impact final GPA
Q2	What are your thoughts on Aeries' GPA and credit tracking capabilities?	Works fine for checking grades and credits
Q3	When you want to check your current GPA, what's the first thing you do, and how long does it usually take you? Walk me through the process.	Usually check Aeries directly, sometimes compare grades across classes, takes a few minutes
Q4	Can you describe your study process before finals or midterms? Do you try to get the highest score, or calculate the worst score you can get to keep your grade? How does your GPA factor in?	Start with review of assignments, then practice tests Try to stay above target grade, GPA not actively calculated but also considered
Q5	When you review your grades, do you focus more on your current semester's performance or your overall performance? Why?	Mostly focus on current semester, but will check overall GPA before big decisions like course selection

Key Insight	One thing from this interview that could inform your design: Students understand GPA generally but mainly use it as a reference rather than actively calculating it during studying

Q#	Question	Notes / Key Quotes
Info	Participant #:14 Date: 04/06/26 Duration: Interviewer: Zoey
Q1	What are some issues, if any, with calculating your GPA, weighted and unweighted?	Calculating weighted grades is confusing, because some course are some weighted, and some aren't
Q2	What are your thoughts on Aeries' GPA and credit tracking capabilities?	Aeries shows your gpa for the semester, and it's not helpful for the total, because it includes middle school
Q3	When you want to check your current GPA, what's the first thing you do, and how long does it usually take you? Walk me through the process.	Look at all past report cards using scorechart, put it into a calculator, and don't include middle school grades.
Q4	Can you describe your study process before finals or midterms? Do you try to get the highest score, or calculate the worst score you can get to keep your grade? How does your GPA factor in?	Goes over all past practice or notes, get notebook and write down the summaries
Q5	When you review your grades, do you focus more on your current semester's performance or your overall performance? Why?	Current, to better focus on grades they can control right now

Key Insight	One thing from this interview that could inform your design: The total GPA function needs work.

Q1	What are some issues, if any, with calculating your GPA, weighted and unweighted?	Difficult to find which classes are weighted: e.g. some honors are weighted, some aren't, wish it showed up on Aeries (like a W on the class side in your gradebook)
Q2	What are your thoughts on Aeries' GPA and credit tracking capabilities?	Pretty good, decent at tracking credits, but GPA is difficult to track over all 4 years b/c it includes middle school in the total
Q3	When you want to check your current GPA, what's the first thing you do, and how long does it usually take you? Walk me through the process.	Put in all grades and divide by # of classes, don't account for weight ~2 minutes
Q4	Can you describe your study process before finals or midterms? Do you try to get the highest score, or calculate the worst score you can get to keep your grade? How does your GPA factor in?	Do all teacher reviews b/c the teachers know what's on the test Other, review all unit reviews individually

Q5	When you review your grades, do you focus more on your current semester's performance or your overall performance? Why?	Current semester b/c they can still change their current grades, not past grades
Key Insight	One thing from this interview that could inform your design: Aeries GPA total includes middle school grades, which may skew perception of grades.
